

Energy & Climate Change 101

A lunchtime seminar series held in Hilary term in the Saïd Business School for university members interested in careers combating climate change.

Tue 29th January – Beyond Business as Usual: the climate change challenge and what you can do about it

Dr Mostyn Brown, Pöry Management Consulting

Tue 3rd February – Carbon and climate change: the science and policy implications of burning fossil carbon in the 21st century

Richard Millar, DPhil in Climate Modelling, University of Oxford

Tue 10th February – Pricing carbon

Simon Henry, Pöry Management Consulting

Tue 17th February – Global oil markets: what ever happened to peak oil?

Benedikt Unger, Pöry Management Consulting

Tue 24th February – Gas market pricing: where is it heading?

Sergej Daut, Pöry Management Consulting

Tue 3rd March – Stranded Assets and the Carbon Bubble: the prospects and implications of a stranding of carbon heavy assets

Alexander Pfeiffer, DPhil at OUCE/Smith School and INET Research Assistant

Tue 10th March – Mission impossible? GB electricity market challenges

John Perkins, Pöry Management Consulting

Venue/timing

Talks run from 12.30–13.15 in Lecture Theatre 5, Saïd Business School. You are welcome to eat your lunch during the talks.

Registration

Spaces are free but limited – you must register for each session (run as individual meetups) on:

<http://www.meetup.com/OxfordClimateSociety/>